Dear [REDACTED]

STATINTL

It was a great pleasure to meet you during the recent visit that [REDACTED] and I paid to Harvard. We are all looking forward to seeing you; our administrative people should be in touch with you about a visit to Washington in January.

Meanwhile, to give you a better idea of the type of economic research performed in this Agency, you will find enclosed a copy of Mr. Dulles' recent testimony to the Subcommittee on Economic Statistics of the Joint Economic Committee.

This presentation not only embodies our latest thinking on the subject of Soviet vs. U.S. economic growth, but also clearly shows the intimate relation between intelligence and policy.

I would urge you, as a matter of some priority, to complete the PER forms so that the necessary action can begin.

Sincerely yours,

Enclosure: Statement by Mr. Dulles
to the Joint Economic Committee
